News from Southwold Town Council

THE PURPOSE OF THIS NEWSLETTER, IS TO INFORM ADVISE AND CONNECT WITH SOUTHWOLD ELECTORS

SIMON TOBIN - TOWN MAYOR OF SOUTHWOLD

Cllr Simon Tobin has been elected as the Chairman of Southwold Town Council (known as the Town Mayor) for the year 2013/14.

He told Connecting that he is very honoured to have been elected as the Town Mayor and that he is looking forward to the year ahead. He believes the Town Council is very positive and pro-active in moving forward this great town of Southwold, while maintaining the traditions and character of the town. He wants to build on relationships with the town's organisations and enhance them with even greater interaction and trust; everyone has a part to play, he says, however a small this may be.

With cuts at WDC and SCC continuing, due to enforced austerity, Simon believes an honest dialogue with each council is critical to Southwold having services delivered in difficult times. He is pledged to address this with vigour and says, "We are blessed to be able to live in a wonderful part of the British Isles, our forefathers having handed down something very special for us to enjoy and nurture".

Simon has been a Town Councillor for eight years and has also served as a District Councillor. He will be supported throughout the Civic Year by his wife, Zuhal.
