Editorial note

While the newsletter sets out to be informative, it seeks to elicit local views, and to challenge perceptions, by encouraging a dialogue with readers; the clerk's office being the conduit for such an exchange.

And a further reminder please: the clerk's office is open to the public between 10 a.m. and 12 noon from Monday to Friday inclusive.

Police contact:

The national non-emergency number 101 should be used dialling 999 is clearly inappropriate.

When in Suffolk, 101 will make contact with Suffolk Police HQ and a direct connection can then be made to the Southwold & Halesworth Safer Neighbourhood Team.

Waveney District Councillors:

Sue Allen and Michael Ladd
[as opposite]

Suffolk County Councillor:

News from Southwold Town Council

CHRISTMAS LIGHTS – SWITCH ON

Shortly after announcing news of this year's event during a committee meeting of Town Councillors on 7 August, Town Mayor Michael Ladd, gave Connecting the following statement:

SWITCH ON night in Southwold is a long established and enjoyable event and following the resignation of the previous hard-working Lights Committee, a partnership has risen out of the ashes. This partnership is between Southwold Town Council, Adnams and the Spring Design Agency.

The 2012 date is confirmed as Friday 7th December and is being project managed by Michael Ladd as Town Mayor with administrative support being provided by Adnams plc.

Due to the very short lead-time and level of funding available, it will, by necessity, be a much lower key event than in previous years, as we will need to 'cut our cloth accordingly'. Consequently we expect the event to be stripped down to the bare basics, but it will happen and will be very traditional in nature.

It is relatively early days, but we have had a good 'hand over' from the previous team and we are all confident that we can provide Southwold with an event to be proud of - much as we have already achieved this year with the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebrations and the Olympic Torch relay.

More information will be forthcoming once we start finalising the details.
